Timeline-

Story of Britain

Mary Seacole was famous for nursing around the same time as Florence Nightingale.

Mary opened the 'British Hotel' in Balaclava, just 2 miles from the fighting. Mary cared for the soldiers.

. She became known as 'Mother Seacole'.

In 1856 the war ended. Mary returned to Britain with little money.

Society and Government

- Mary Seacole had to pay for her own ticket to Crimea because she was black.
- Mary heard about the war and wanted to sign up.
- She knew she was turned away because of the colour of her skin.

Economy and Trade

- Jamaica was part of the British Empire (1797-1962).
- The British Government would not take her on as a hospital nurse there
